The 1962

CENTRALIAN

...to every purpose

there is time . . . Eccl. 8:6a

The close of the 1961-62 school year brings with it evidences of the great amount of time spent by dedicated persons working toward a definite goal.

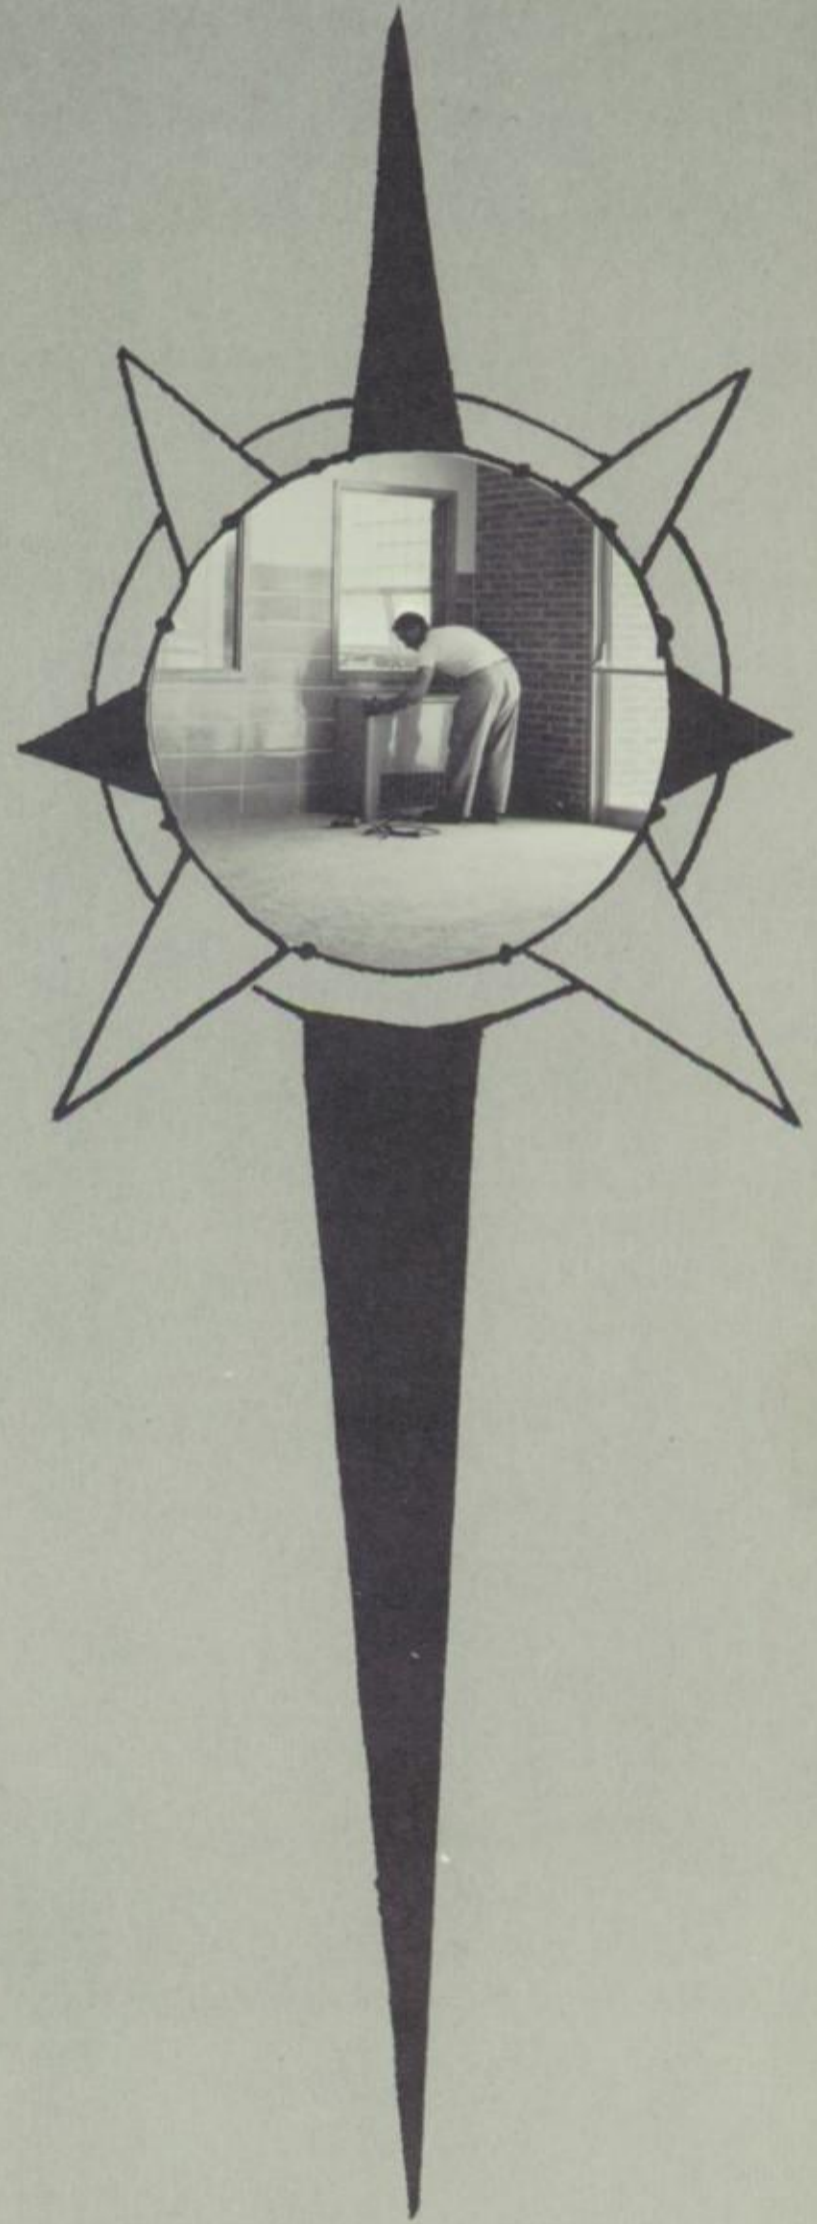

To accomplish this purpose, the vision received was the time to plan; the time to build, the reality of the vision.

A Christian faculty has taken time to teach not only facts, but also ideals. As students, we have taken time to learn, at least in part if not in whole.

The social and spiritual areas of our memories of these beginning days of Central Christian High School the Annual Staff wishes to share with you through the CENTRALIAN, which portrays the purposes for which we used our time.

The realization that our Christian High School was needed came into existence the same year as we Seniors-1944.

After twelve years of prayerful preparation an investigation step was taken: Christian Schools, Inc., was formed for the purpose of establishing a Christian High School in the Ohio Conference. The first Board of Trustees began actual planning.

A two-year campaign was inaugurated in '59 throughout the Church and Community.

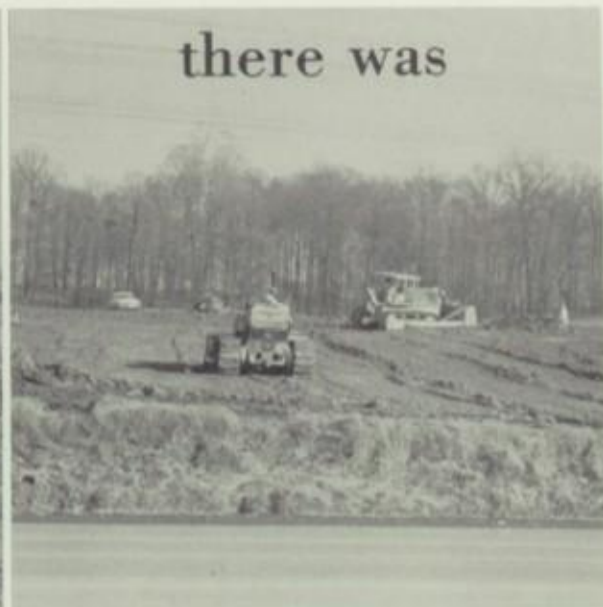

A campus of approximately thirty acres was purchased. On Thanksgiving Day, 1959, a ground breaking ceremony was held.

Then

there was

Progress

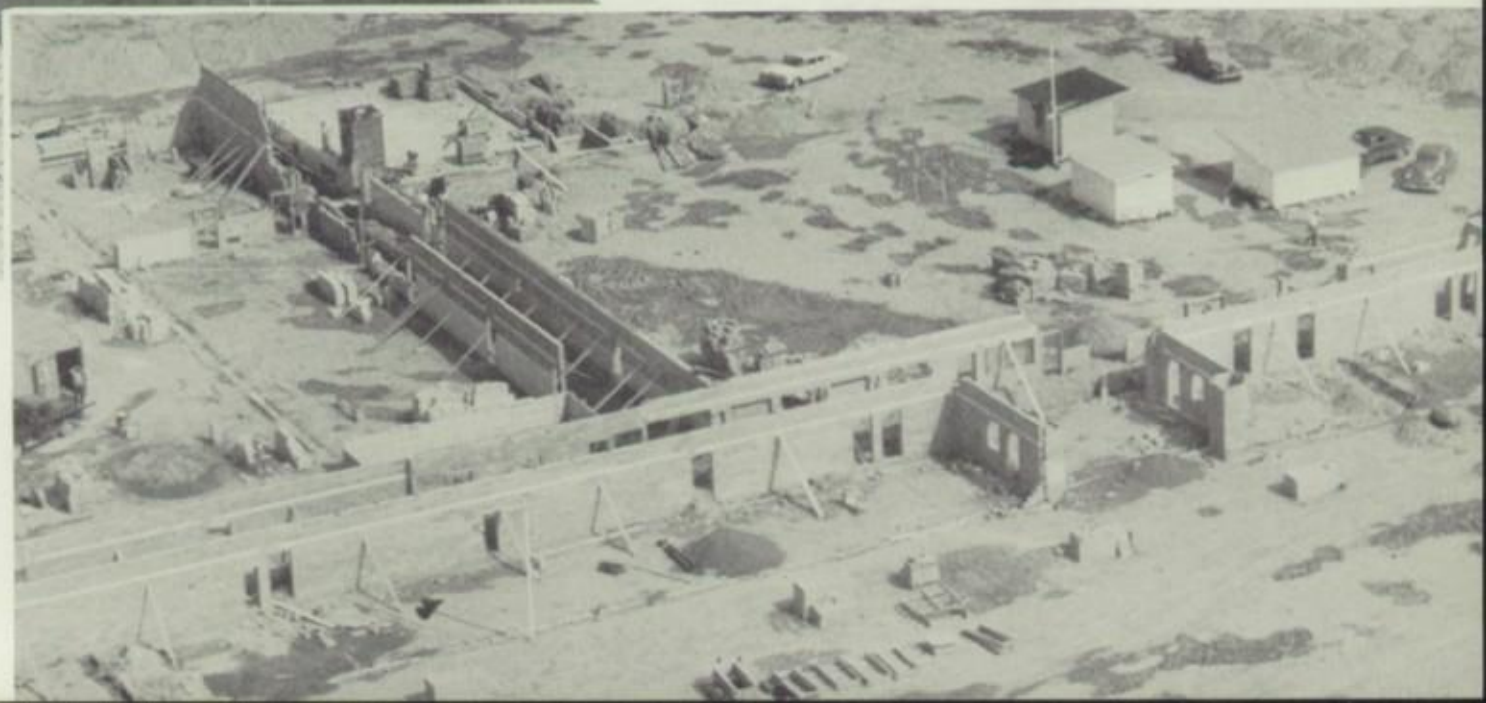

Where cows once grazed, land was leveled. . . . Cement was poured. . . .

The foundation was dug. . . . Walls were built. . . . A new building was growing.

Men of many crafts and trades contributed their skills to raise the building. As one gang of workers replaced a preceeding gang, walls rose from the open hole and the structure took recognizable form.

The finished product at last

At one time it was hoped that school could open the fall of 1960, but this date came and passed with work still undone. The opening date was pushed forward another year and this time the building was ready for students.

This has become a familiar view to us now as we arrive at school for another day of hard work, fun and fellowship at Central.

These men, who labored hard to make our beloved Central what it is today, are not finished with their work. They frequently meet to discuss problems and to make further plans for the betterment of our school.

Registration—The First School Day

We arrived unknown and unknowing, but this soon changed. New faces, names, and rooms soon became friends, classmates, and familiar surroundings.

That pack of forms we received guided us through registration and started our year off well. Teachers helped students choose subjects most suited to their abilities and interests. Now schedules are memorized and activities are in full swing as the hall clock ticks off the hours of the passing school year.

Central Students Attend International Missionary Convention

Seven of Central's students and two advisors attended the Sixth International Missionary Convention at the University of Illinois in Urbana, December 27-31, 1961. The main highlight of the convention was lectures by Billy Graham, Paul Lindell, and others on the theme, "Faith For Our Time". Other features included panels, interviews of missionaries, Bible study groups, and films. The students were challenged anew of their missionary responsibility, and the claim of God upon their lives.

HEARTS FOR CHRIST

This was the big occasion of the year. Many hours were spent in planning and preparing this meaningful evening which we spent with friends. Following a wonderful meal and fellowship around the tables, we enjoyed the talents of Barbara Gerber at the piano, and vocal solos by Christine Hilty and Mr. Sommer.

BANQUET

The Amstutz Sisters' Trio also rendered several numbers of special music. The main emphasis of the evening was to draw hearts to Christ. Ray Bair of Louisville presented this very clearly to us in his message to us. We certainly are grateful to God for the souls that accepted Christ. Before leaving, we showed Central to our friends.
